WRIT GRANTED; REMANDED FOR CORRECTION OF COMMITMENT

In this writ application, relator, Julius D. Walker, Jr., contends that the record does not accurately reflect the sentence the trial court imposed for his misdemeanor domestic abuse battery conviction in Case No. 24-3439 in the 24th Judicial District Court for the Parish of Jefferson. Relator specifically argues that the May 18, 2026 sentencing transcript indicates that the trial court ordered his six-month sentence in Case No. 24-3439 to run concurrently with the sentence imposed for count two in Case No. 24-4372.[1] However, the commitment minute

[1] In Case No. 24-4372, also filed in the 24th Judicial District Court, defendant was charged with attempted second degree murder in violation of La. R.S. 14:27.30.1 (count one) and violation of a protective order with battery in violation of La. R.S. 14:79(C)(1) (count two). A jury found relator guilty as charged on both counts. On May 18, 2026, the trial court sentenced relator to 35 years at hard labor without the benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence on count one and one year at hard labor with 30 entries state that the sentence in Case No. 24-3439 is to run consecutive to his sentence for count two in Case No. 24-4372. When a discrepancy exists between minute entries and the transcript, the transcript prevails. State v. Lynch, 441 So.2d 732, 734 (La. 1983).

Accordingly, we grant relator's writ application and remand this matter to the trial court to correct the commitment to reflect that relator's sentence in Case No. 24-3439 is to run concurrently with his sentence for count two in Case No. 24-4372.
