WRIT DENIED

Relator, Kendrick Armant, filed a pro se writ of mandamus requesting an order from this Court compelling the trial court to rule on his Motion for Bill of Particulars and Discovery and Inspection, filed on September 2, 2025.

In his writ application, relator alleges the trial court has not ruled on his motion. However, review of the trial court record indicates that the trial court denied the motion on October 6, 2025, with relator present and represented by counsel, as shown by the minute entry for that date. The trial court has already ruled; therefore, no remedy is available. Relator's writ application is moot.

Accordingly, the writ application is denied.
